There is nothing like festive London.

With millions of lights brightening up the streets, Christmas trees in every window and crowds of shoppers rushing up and down Oxford Street - there is no place like London at Christmas! Right now London also offers a once in a lifetime exhibition experience - a visit to the Tutankhamun and the Golden Age of the Pharaohs exhibition.

The perfect addition to any trip to London and with no booking fee to be paid by anyone purchasing the London Pass , a visit to this great exhibition is a must.

London Pass is the perfect gift for anyone planning to visit London. You know that the best gifts come in small packages – well, you don't get much smaller than a London Pass!

Buy 2007 London Passes at 2006 Prices For over 900 years the Tower of London has dominated the city of London – no surprise then that it is one of the capital's most prominent landmarks and an essential place to visit if you're on the London sightseeing trail.

Throughout its long history the Tower of London has been England's most feared castle, a place of execution, torture and imprisonment – its nickname 'The Bloody Tower' says it all! It is definitely a must see on a sightseeing tour of London.

ENTRY TO THE TOWER OF LONDON, WHICH NORMALLY COSTS £16, IS INCLUDED FREE ON THE LONDON PASS.

Nowadays you can enjoy ice skating at one of the most famous landmarks in London! A truly unique outdoor ice skating experience opens to the public on 24th November.
